CESENA WELCOMES THE “ARTISTIC WORLD CUP FINAL”

Cesena is a dynamic city in the heart of Emilia-Romagna, where history, sport, and innovation coexist in perfect harmony.

Dominated by the Malatesta Fortress and renowned for the Malatestiana Library – a UNESCO World Heritage site – Cesena offers a unique setting that blends cultural tradition with a contemporary spirit. Welcoming and easy to reach, the city is surrounded by green hills and located close to the Adriatic coast, making it ideal for athletes and visitors from all over the world. Its strong sporting vocation, combined with Romagna’s renowned hospitality and modern facilities, makes Cesena the perfect venue for hosting high-level international sporting events.

Here, a passion for sport meets organizational excellence in an authentic, energetic, and inclusive atmosphere where everyone feels at home.

HOW TO GET TO CESENA

By Car

Cesena is well connected to the national motorway and road network.

A14 Motorway (Bologna–Taranto)

Recommended exit: Cesena Nord, from which the city center can be reached in just a few minutes.

Direct connections to Bologna, Rimini, Ravenna, and Ancona.

Smooth traffic flow makes Cesena a convenient destination for both short trips and longer journeys.

By Air

Cesena is served by three main airports, all easily accessible by road or rail:

Bologna Guglielmo Marconi Airport

Approximately 90 km from Cesena

Main airport of Emilia-Romagna

Domestic and international flights to and from major European cities
Excellent rail and motorway connections

Forlì Luigi Ridolfi Airport

Approximately 20 km from Cesena

Ideal for domestic and charter flights

Seasonal connections and selected routes, often operated by low-cost airlines

Rimini Federico Fellini Airport

Approximately 45 km from Cesena

International and seasonal flights, especially from Eastern Europe and some European cities

host city

By train

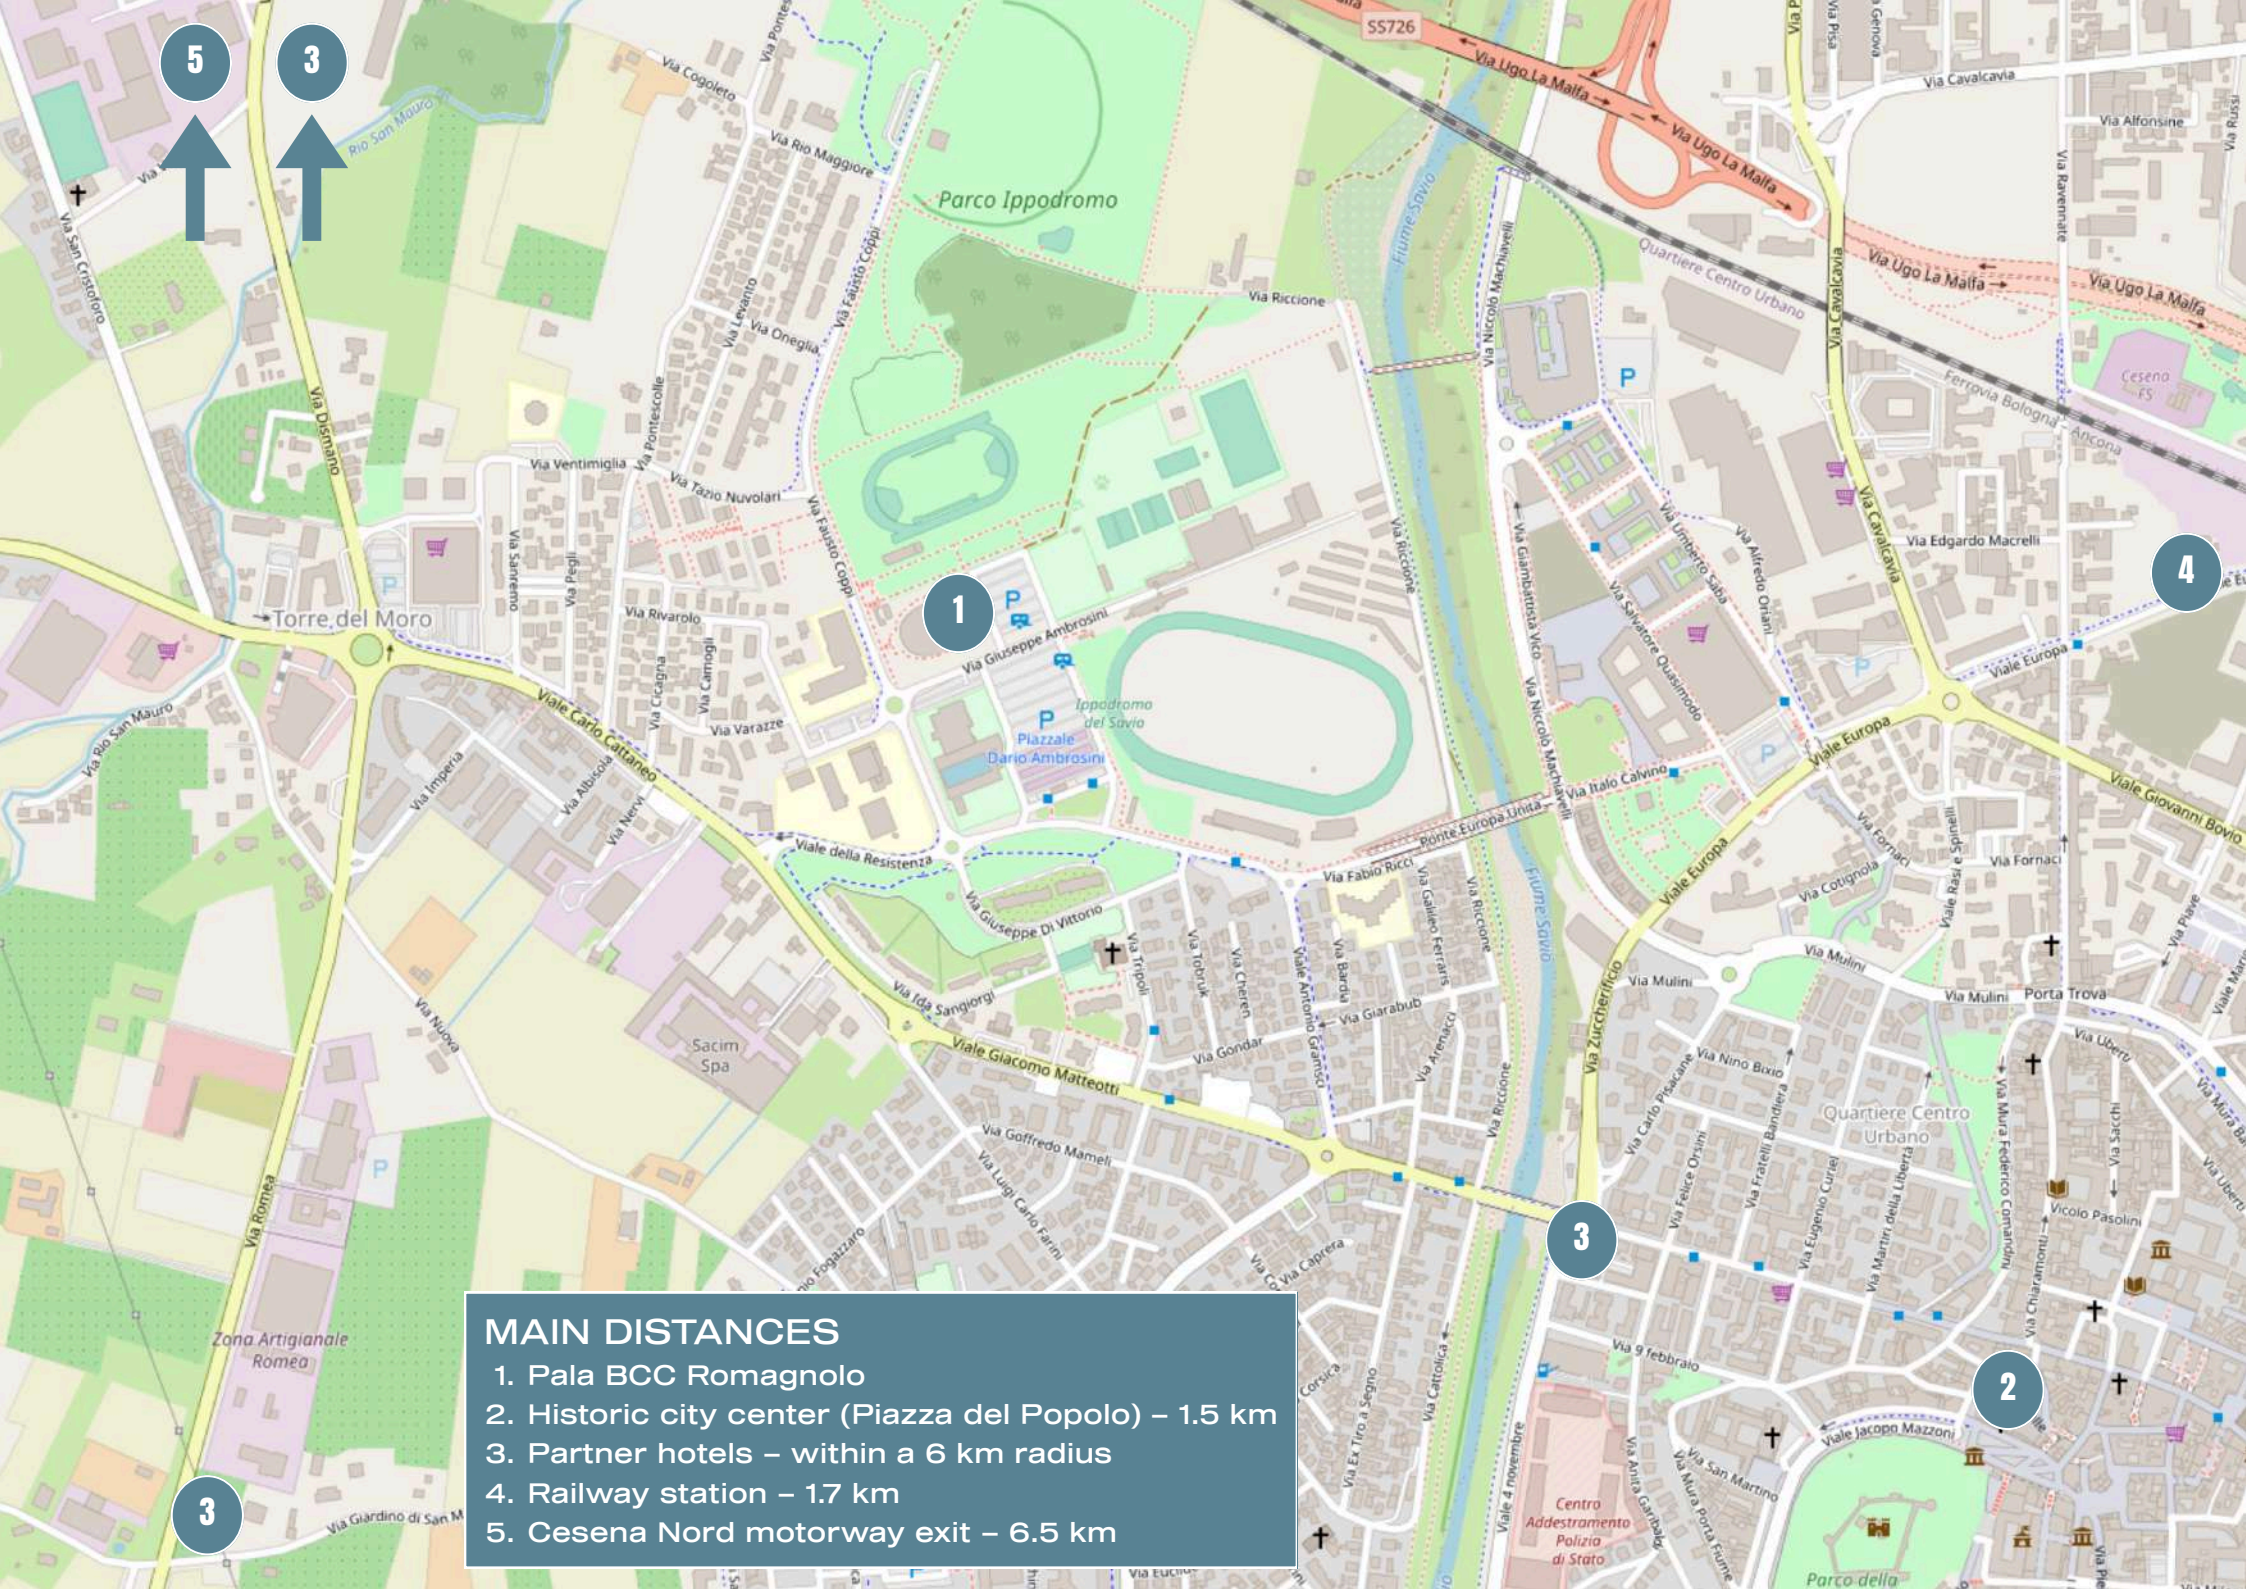

The Cesena railway station is located on the Bologna–Ancona line, one of the main railway routes in Italy.

PALA BCC ROMAGNOLO

Located on Via Ambrosini, in the Ippodromo area. Built in 1985, the venue has recently been renovated following a major redevelopment project.

A highly versatile, multi-purpose facility, the Pala BCC Romagnolo hosts volleyball, basketball, and other indoor sports competitions, as well as cultural events, concerts, and major performances.

The main arena can accommodate over 3,000 spectators in numbered seating, offering ample space for the audience and optimal visibility from every section.

The venue features:

- A removable sports parquet floor and a playing surface suitable for multiple indoor disciplines
- Modern lighting, ventilation, and safety systems ensuring comfort and usability
- A fully equipped gym with the latest Technogym equipment
- Two bars and catering areas

Skating setup

For the Artistic World Cup Final – Cesena 2026, a wooden panel flooring will be installed, coated with Vesmaco Durflex 100 resin, measuring 22 x 44 meters.

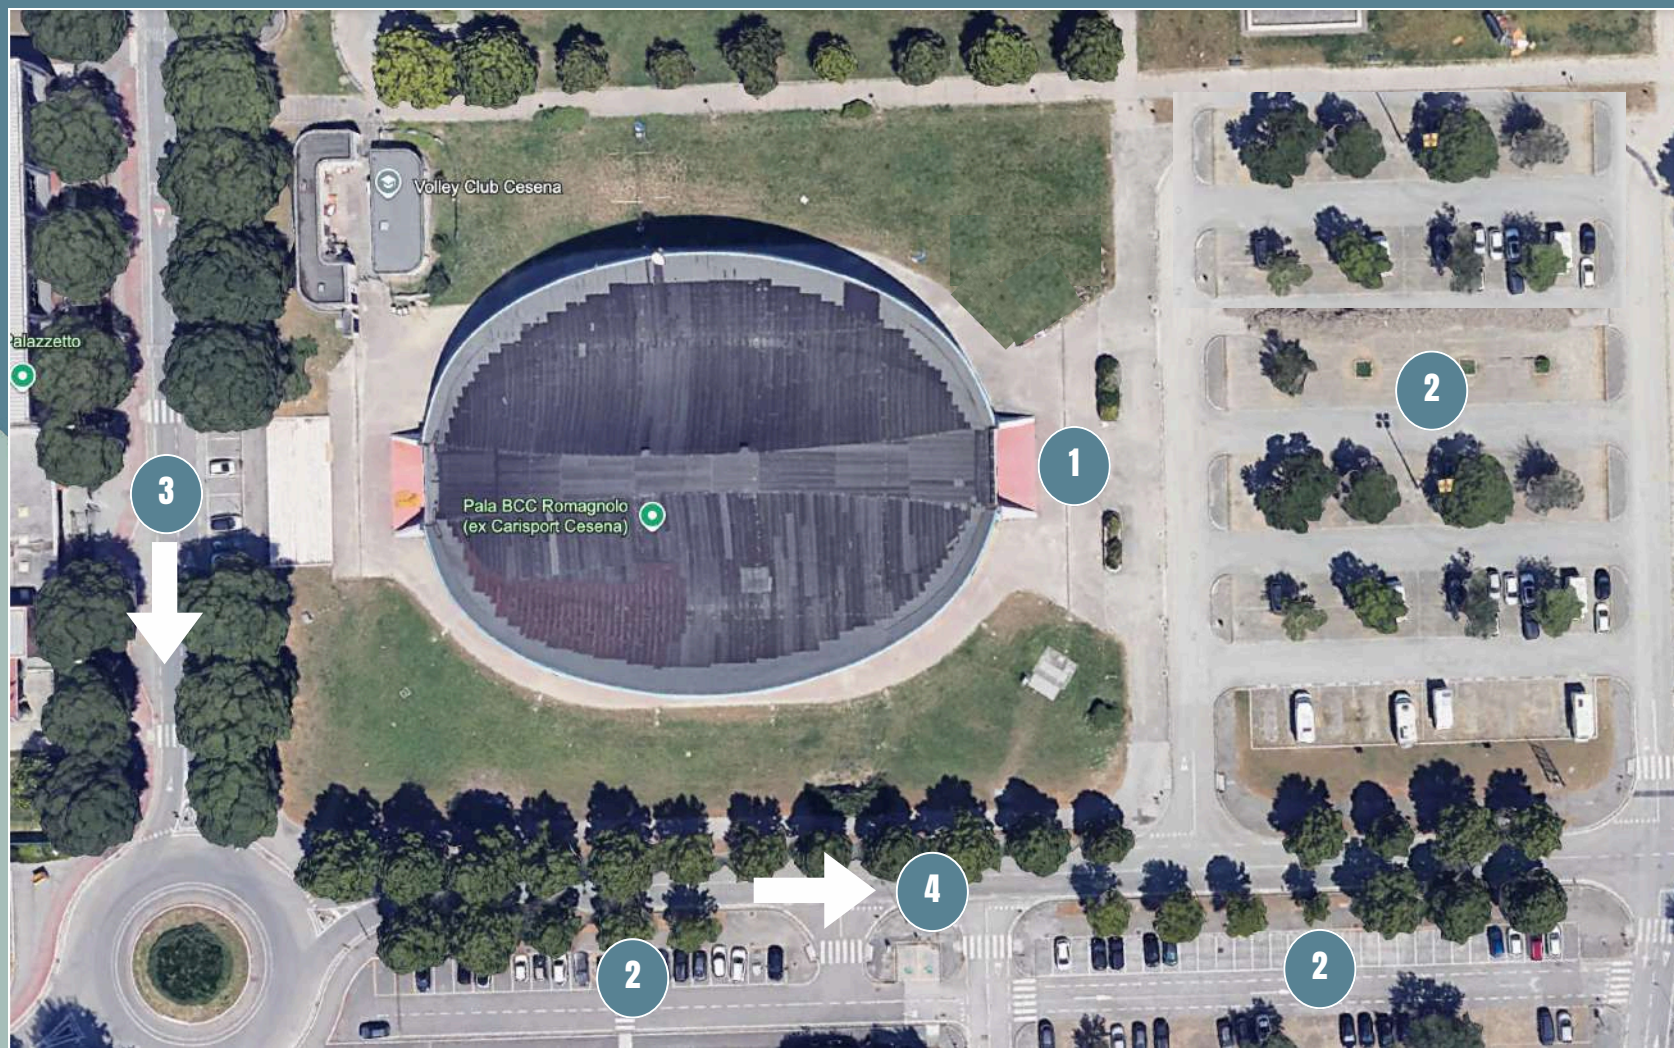

The same rink was used in Reggio Emilia for the World Cup Final 2025 and in Rimini as a training rink during the World Skate Games 2024.
